The National Congress of American Indians
Resolution #MOH-04-001

TITLE: The Examination of Indian Law on State Bar Examinations

WHEREAS, we, the members of the National Congress of American Indians of the United States, invoking the divine blessing of the Creator upon our efforts and purposes, in order to preserve for ourselves and our descendants the inherent sovereign rights of our Indian nations, rights secured under Indian treaties and agreements with the United States, and all other rights and benefits to which we are entitled under the laws and Constitution of the United States, to enlighten the public toward a better understanding of the Indian people, to preserve Indian cultural values, and otherwise promote the health, safety and welfare of the Indian people, do hereby establish and submit the following resolution; and

WHEREAS, the National Congress of American Indians (NCAI) was established in 1944 and is the oldest and largest national organization of American Indian and Alaska Native tribal governments; and

WHEREAS, Tribal economic development and the resulting increase in interaction of Indian nations and people, with non-Indian entities and individuals both on and off of the reservation, has given rise to an array of business transactions, regulatory issues and litigation matters between Tribal and non-tribal parties; and

WHEREAS, the American public and their attorneys do not generally understand the legal import of our Indian nations’ inherent sovereign rights; nor do they understand precisely how tribal self-governance and self-determination, and the laws and ways of Indian nations, affect and intersect Anglo-American legal principles; and

WHEREAS, if attorneys for the American public, particularly federal, state and local government, better understood the legal concepts of Tribal self-governance and Tribal jurisdiction, there would be fewer disputes and government-to-government dialogue would be greatly enhanced; and

WHEREAS, in February 2002 the State of New Mexico became the first state to test the topic of Indian law on its bar licensing exam, with a view towards educating public and private legal counsel and, in turn, the American public about the legal rights of sovereign Indian nations; and

WHEREAS, the majority of American states, which host large populations of Indian people and/or a significant presence of Tribal lands, including Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Montana, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada, Utah, North and South Dakota, Oklahoma, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, New York, Maine, Connecticut, Louisiana and Florida, should likewise include the topic of Indian law on their bar licensing examinations.
NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the NCAI does hereby support the Affiliated Tribes of Northwest Indians and the Association of Washington Tribes, and their friends and colleagues in the Northwest Indian Bar Association, the Washington State Bar Association Indian Law Section and Idaho State Bar Indian Law Section, and the National Native American Bar Association, in their endeavor to have the topic of Indian law tested by state bar associations, so the American public can better understand the inherent sovereign rights of our Indian nations.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the NCAI does hereby seek the assistance and collaboration of the American Bar Association, and the bar associations, boards of bar examiners and Supreme Courts in states such as Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Montana, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada, Utah, North and South Dakota, Oklahoma, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, New York, Connecticut, Maine, Louisiana and Florida, to carry out the provisions of this resolution.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that this resolution be immediately transmitted upon its effective date to the President and President-elect of the American Bar Association.

CERTIFICATION

The foregoing resolution was adopted at the 2004 Mid-Year Session of the National Congress of American Indians, held at the Mohegan Sun Hotel and Casino, Uncasville, CT on June 23, 2004 with a quorum present.
