

Three Affiliated Tribes Ethics & Rules Committee--Vacancy Announcement

The Three Affiliated Tribes is seeking three candidates to serve on the Three Affiliated Tribes Ethics & Rules Committee. Committee members will be appointed to a 4 year term.

The Committee shall have the specific duties, responsibilities and authority to:

1. Ensure that all appropriate measures are taken for protecting the confidentiality of all statements, records, documents, other materials and information designated as such by the Ethics in Government Ordinance or by any other applicable rules or regulations of the MHA Nation or other competent jurisdiction.
2. Provide written advisory opinions to guide the conduct and address specific questions when requested by officials and employees who are subject to the Ordinance.
3. The Committee may initiate and/or receive, review and/or investigate complaints filed with the Committee.
4. The Committee shall conduct Administrative Hearing to determine violations or non-compliance with the Ordinance.

The successful candidates should have at least 5 years of experience as an attorney, with the following minimum qualifications:

- Must possess a Juris Doctorate from an accredited law school, licensed to practice law in any state, and a member in good standing of the bar of any state or federal court.
- Must efficiently operate a computer with knowledge of word processing, Westlaw, and/or similar legal research software.
- Must communicate clearly and concisely, orally and in writing.
- Must be of high moral character and integrity.
- Must never have been convicted of a criminal offense, other traffic offenses, for which punishment of imprisonment was imposed.
- Must not have been dishonorably discharged from the Armed Services.
- Must be physically able to carry out the duties of the appointment.

Applications shall be in writing, to include a resume, legal qualifications and any other submissions at the option of the applicant. All applications are considered on merit.

Applications and any inquiries regarding the positions may be directed or submitted to the following:

Walker Law Firm, PLLC
3613 Bay Place SE
Mandan, North Dakota 58554

or email: walkerlawfirmpllc@gmail.com.