Nothing contained in the preceding sentence or elsewhere in this Code shall be construed as a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Tribe or its officers or enterprises unless specifically denominated as such and the court is expressly prohibited from exercising jurisdiction over the Nooksack Indian Tribe without an express waiver of sovereign immunity.

10.00.060 Long-arm jurisdiction: It has been and continues to be the intent of the Nooksack Indian Tribe that the tribal court exercise long-arm jurisdiction to the extent consistent with the due process protections provided by 25 USC Sec. 1302(8). Unless prohibited by federal law, a person, including any legal entity, who is a member or non-member of the Tribe residing outside the Tribe's territorial jurisdiction and/or not present within such territory, submits to the jurisdiction of the tribal court by doing any of the following acts:

- (a) Transacting any business within tribal territory including but not limited to contracts to supply services or tangible items within the reservation or off-reservation trust lands and conveying any interest in property located within such tribal territory;

If the individual commits such an act, the court's jurisdiction over the person also extends to his or her personal advocate

10.00.070 Interpretation of Rules: These rules shall be interpreted in the light of and supplemented by the traditions, customs and common understanding of the people of the Nooksack Tribe, but when such "custom law" is in conflict with provisions in the Tribal Code, the written law shall apply.

10.00.080 Liberal Interpretation: These rules shall be liberally interpreted and applied or achieve the following purposes: revealing the truth, treating all parties fairly and without prejudice, securing simplicity in proceedings, protecting individual rights guaranteed by the Indian Civil Rights Act, the Nooksack Constitution, and encouraging the application of traditions and customs of the Nooksack Indian Tribe.

10.00.090 Limitation of Remedies: When the Nooksack Indian Tribe, as a party, has consented to jurisdiction of the court, its waiver of sovereign immunity shall be limited by the following limitations on remedies that may be imposed against it:

- (a) The court shall not issue an order to the Nooksack Indian Tribe that involves the expenditure of tribal funds, without the Nooksack Indian Tribe's consent.
- (b) No emergency, temporary or preliminary restraining order may be signed or entered by the court in any action against the Nooksack Indian Tribe or its officers, employees or agents.

The court shall have no jurisdiction over any suit brought against the Nooksack Indian Tribe, its officials, its entities, or employees without the consent of the Tribe.

- (a) Nothing contained within this code, or other Tribal ordinance, resolution, policy or otherwise shall be deemed to constitute a waiver or renunciation of the sovereign immunity of the Tribe to suit. Such consent or waiver must be expressly made by the Nooksack Tribal Council by majority vote through passage of an ordinance, by resolution, by entering into a written contract which provides for an express waiver, or by other means adopted by the Nooksack Tribal Council.
- (b) The Nooksack Tribe has not waived its sovereign immunity, nor consented to suit, for claims seeking writs of mandamus against the Chairman of the Nooksack Tribe, nor the members of the Tribal Council.

10.01 RULES OF CONSTRUCTION

10.01.010 Purpose: The purpose of these rules of construction is to provide guidelines to the court in the interpretation of tribal ordinances, resolutions, regulations and policies in order that the substantive intent of tribal council actions shall be accurately reflected in tribal court decisions.

10.01.020 General Rules: The Tribal Court shall interpret tribal ordinances resolutions, regulations, and policies in order that the substantive intent of the Tribal Council is ensured. The court shall not indulge in highly technical or legalistic interpretations of tribal ordinances, regulations, and policies when such interpretation would defeat the overall legislative goals of the Tribal Council.

10.02 RULES GOVERNING ADVOCATES

10.02.010 Right to be Represented by an Advocate: Any person appearing as a party in any civil or criminal action shall have the right to be represented by an advocate of his/her own choice and at his/her own expense; provided, however, that the Nooksack Indian Tribe has no obligation to provide or pay for such an advocate; provided further, that any such advocate appearing before the Courts of the Nooksack Indian Tribe shall have first obtained admission to practice before such Courts in accordance with the procedures set forth herein.

10.02.020 Obligation of an Advocate:

- (a) Any person appearing as an advocate shall be subject to the same ethical obligations of honesty and confidentiality towards his/her client and the Court as would a professional attorney; and the attorney-client testimonial privilege shall apply in appropriate circumstances. All advocates must comply with the Advocate's Code of Conduct as established by Tribal Council. Advocates shall be deemed officers of the Court for purposes of their representation of a party and shall be subject to the disciplinary authority of the Court in all matters relating to their advocate capacity.
- (b) Due to their status as officers of the Court, professional attorneys have additional responsibilities to the Court and the parties. For that reason, advocates who are professional attorneys ("Attorney-Advocates") are bound by the Advocates Code of Conduct, the Rules of Professional Conduct ("RPCs") for attorneys licensed to practice in the state of Washington, and decisions of Washington courts regarding attorney discipline.
- (c) Any advocate who prepares a pleading for an otherwise pro se litigant must disclose such assistance, including the phrase "Prepared with Assistance of Counsel" on the pleading, and identifying the advocate. Ghostwriting that represents a pleading to be pro se when it is in fact a product of the advocate is a deception on the court and a per se violation of Rule 14 of the Advocates Code of Conduct.

10.02.030 Appearance as an Advocate: Any person at least 18 years old who is of good moral character may appear as an advocate in the Nooksack Tribal Court as long as he or she has (1) applied in writing for permission, (2) paid the admission fee, (3) read the Constitution and the ordinances of the Nooksack Tribe, and the Rules of the Nooksack Tribal Court, (4) taken an oath to uphold the Constitution and obey by the ordinances of the Nooksack Tribe and the Rules of the Nooksack Tribal Court, and (5) been certified by the Court as qualified to appear.

10.02.040 Procedure for Admission: Before a person is permitted to appear as an Advocate in the tribal court, he or she shall state before the judge: "I have read and understand the tribal constitution, tribal ordinances and the rules of the tribal court. I will uphold the Constitution, will obey by the ordinances of the Nooksack Tribe and the Rules of the Nooksack Tribal Court, will respect the judges and officers of the tribal court, will not raise any claims or defenses which do not appear to be honestly debatable and just and will be truthful at all times."

10.02.050 Admission fee: An admission fee, set by schedule passed by the Nooksack Tribal Council, shall be tendered with the application, subject to return if the application is denied. The fee shall be waived for advocates employed by the tribe and for others, with consent of the court.

10.02.060 Appeal: Any person denied admission shall have a right to appeal and have a due process hearing before the Tribal Appellate Court. There shall be a $50.00 fee for appeals.

10.02.070 Disbarment and Discipline:

- (a) Whenever it is made to appear to the Chief Judge that any advocate that has been disbarred or suspended from the practice of law in any other tribe or state, he/she shall immediately be given notice at his/her last known address that he shall be suspended from practice before the Courts of the Nooksack Indian Tribe for an indefinite period unless he/she files a response within ten (10) days and shows good cause why such order should not be made.
- (b) Whenever the Tribal Council becomes aware that any advocate has violated the Advocate's Code of Conduct, or the advocate's behavior and/or practices reflect so poorly upon the proper administration of justice before the Nooksack Tribal Court of the Nooksack Indian Tribe, the Tribal Council may revoke any privileges provided to such person(s) and bar them from further practice in any administrative tribunal before the Nooksack Indian Tribe or proceeding before the Nooksack Tribal Court. Tribal Council may hold such hearings as necessary to ensure that such behavior and/or practices are proven; or, as may be necessary to correct such past behavior and/or practices.

10.02.080 Contempt: Any judge who finds an advocate to be in contempt of court may, in addition to any other sanction imposed, order the advocate to appear and show cause why he/she should not be suspended from practicing in the Courts of the Nooksack Indian Tribe.

10.02.090 Complaints: The court may, upon its own motion, or upon receiving a written complaint which indicates that an advocate has acted in an unethical or otherwise improper manner while functioning as an advocate, order such advocate to appear and defend him/herself at a hearing, to hear all evidence relevant to the matter, and may order the suspension of such an advocate if such appears reasonably necessary or appropriate.

10.03 RULES OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT

10.03.010 Judges: A Chief Judge and associate judges shall be appointed by the Tribal Council and shall be compensated on a basis determined by the Council. When a tribal court judge is ill, disqualified or otherwise unavailable, the Tribal Council or its delegate shall appoint a temporary judge.

10.03.020 Magistrates: In addition to judges, the Tribal Council may appoint magistrates to be on call in order exercise the powers provided for herein. Magistrates shall have the power to issue search or arrest warrants, receive bail, set the amount of bail where tribal law or Tribal Court Judge has not set an amount, and set and/or continue trial dates. Magistrates shall exercise these powers when assigned to them by a Tribal Judge or at any time a Tribal Judge is not reasonably available. Any such action of a magistrate shall be subject to review and modification by any judge of the Tribal Court.

10.03.030 Disqualification: No judge shall be qualified to act in any case where he or she has an interest, is or has been a material witness or is related to any party or their advocate as a parent, guardian, grandparent, son, daughter, grandson, granddaughter, aunt, uncle, sister, brother, niece or nephew.

10.03.040 Ex Parte Communications: Except as authorized by law, judges may neither initiate nor consider ex parte or other communications concerning a pending or impending proceeding.

10.03.050 Powers of Judges:

- (a) The judge(s) shall hear and decide all matters properly filed in the Tribal Court.
- (b) Whenever the Tribal Court has jurisdiction over a person and subject, the court shall have the power to use reasonable means to protect and carry out its jurisdictions. If the means to enforce its jurisdiction are not spelled out in these rules or in the Tribal Code, the court may use any appropriate procedure that is fair and consistent with the spirit and intent of the tribal law being applied, and with the fullest exercise of the Nooksack Tribe's sovereign immunity.
- (c) If these rules do not set forth a procedure, the parties and the judge may agree on a procedure or the judge may determine the procedure, which will be followed.
- (d) As long as a party does not unknowingly waive a right guaranteed by tribal law, the parties and the judge may agree to depart from procedures established in these rules in order to save time or expense as long as the purpose of these rules and the tribal laws are achieved.

10.03.060 Contacts Outside of Court:

- (a) Ex parte communications violate the right of every party to a fair hearing, undermine the reliability of the adversary process, cast doubt on the impartiality of the judge, and undermine the court's institutional legitimacy.
- (b) Except in open court, a judge shall not discuss a case or any judicial business related to a case, which the judge is assigned to with a party in that case, a party's advocate or any person who has an interest in the case, unless all parties are present.
- (c) No party, whether or not that party is represented by an advocate, shall have any ex parte communications with the judge. "Ex parte" means by, for, or on behalf of one party. In addition to in-person contacts, this rule covers communication by telephone, letter, e-mail and any other modes. Copying the other party or the other party's advocate on the communication at the time it is sent does not remove the contact from the prohibitions of this section. An advocate who counsels a party to engage in ex parte contacts with the judge, or engages in ex parte contacts himself or herself, has committed a per se violation of this section and Advocates Code of Conduct Rule 22.

- (d) A judge shall not seek advice or opinions from other persons, including judges and lawyers, regarding the merits of a particular case. A judge may, however, discuss general principles affecting cases and hypothetical examples with other judges and lawyers

10.03.070 Conflicts of Interest: A judge should disqualify herself or himself from hearing a case in which a close relative is a party or witness, a case in which the judge has interests which may be affected by the outcome, or has personal knowledge of facts which would prevent him or her from considering all sides impartially.

10.03.080 Fairness and Diligence:

- (a) A judge shall respect and comply with tribal law and always conduct herself or himself in such a way as to promote respect for the law.
- (b) A judge shall not let social or family relationships, his or her political or religious views, or criticism or praise influence the decisions he or she makes in court.
- (c) A judge shall be patient, courteous, careful, and conscientious in the performance of all official duties.

A request for a jury trial may be made orally in open court or in writing and it must be made at least ten days before the scheduled trial. A judge will approve a defendant's request for a jury trial unless the defendant has waived his or right to jury trial by failing to request one in a timely manner.
- (b) The following persons are eligible to serve as jurors in the Nooksack Tribal court: every Nooksack tribal member on the tribe's voting list who resides or is domiciled in Whatcom County, provided that otherwise eligible tribal members residing outside Whatcom County who wish to be included in the general jury pool will be included on the juror list by the court clerk at that person's request; non-tribal members who are closely associated with the Nooksack Tribal Community. Nooksack tribal law enforcement officers, Tribal Council members and persons who are mentally or physically unable to perform a juror's duties are not eligible.

- (c) The clerk of the court shall prepare and shall keep up-to-date a list of persons eligible to serve as jurors.
- (d) When a defendant asks for a jury, the clerk shall draw the names of 21 persons by lot from the jury list. The clerk shall then send a summons to each person whose name is drawn, ordering the person to appear in court at the time set for trial of the case. The summons shall give the names of all defendants. The summons shall be sent no later than five days before the trial date. The judge may excuse any person from jury service if the person demonstrates hardship or other good reason to be excused.
- (e) Of the potential jurors who are not excused from serving, the judge shall dismiss any person who is a close relative of a party or of an advocate in the case and any person who would not be able to decide the facts in an unprejudiced way. In order to find out whether a juror is prejudiced, the judge shall question the prospective jurors and may allow the parties a chance to question the jurors and say whether and why they think any of the prospective jurors is unqualified or prejudiced.
- (f) After jurors are dismissed under Section (f) of this rule, each party shall dismiss, without stating a reason, half the number of jurors left over six. This shall be done in a way that does not reveal which party dismissed any juror. If an odd number of jurors are left, the judge shall dismiss the last one. If fewer than six persons are left, the trial shall be postponed until the clerk can summon twelve more persons as provided in Section (d) of this rule.
- (g) Jury Instructions: The jury shall hear all evidence about the facts of the case. At the close of presentations, the judge shall explain to the jury what the law is and shall instruct the jury to decide what the facts are in light of the law as explained. The parties may suggest to the judge the explanations, which they think the judge should give the jury.
- (h) The jury shall discuss the case in secret until at least 5 of the 6 members agree on a verdict. If the jury is unable to agree on a verdict, the judge shall dismiss the jury; however, if the jury votes unanimously to acquit the defendant, the judge may dismiss the charges and forbid the tribe to refile the charges. Otherwise, upon the tribe's request, the judge shall order that a new jury be summoned and a new trial be held.
- (i) Every person who is called for jury service may be paid for reasonable costs of traveling to court plus $10 for every day that he or she sits as a juror. These costs may be included in the court costs awarded against a defendant who is found guilty.

10.07.300 Verdict:

- (a) At the end of the trial, the judge or the jury shall announce a verdict of guilty or not guilty on every charge against the defendant.
- (b) If a verdict of not guilty is announced, the judge shall record that defendant was acquitted, the clerk shall enter the acquittal in the official record along with the names of the jurors in the case, and the defendant shall immediately be released from custody.
- (c) If a verdict of guilty is announced, the judge shall set a time for sentencing. If all parties agree, sentencing may take place immediately.

10.07.310 Sentencing:

- (a) Within a reasonable time after defendant is convicted or pleads guilty, the judge shall declare a sentence within the sentencing guidelines established for defendant's offense.
- (b) At the judge's request or on their own, the parties may give the judge any information, which should be considered in setting the sentence. Relevant information may include the circumstances of the offense and defendant's previous offenses, employment history, social history, attitude, needs, potential, and tribal customs and traditions.
- (c) Upon setting a penalty, the judge shall sign and file with the clerk a written judgment. The judgment shall state the defendant's name, the offense charged, the verdict, and the sentence.
- (d) The clerk shall receive and record all fines paid and record the evidence of completion of any other part of the sentence. When the sentence is fully carried out, the clerk shall note that fact and close the file. If the sentence is not carried out within a timely manner, the clerk shall notify the prosecutor.

10.07.320 Motion for New Trial:

- (a) A person who is convicted by a judge or jury may ask for a new trial within seven days after sentencing. The judge shall grant a new trial if one of the following is true:
  - i. The jury's decision was materially affected by evidence it should not have considered;

- ii. A substantial right of the defendant was materially denied;
- iii. New evidence exists which was not discoverable at or before the time of the trial;
- iv. There was a material error in law at or before trial; or
- v. There has otherwise been a substantial miscarriage of justice.

(b) If a new trial is granted, the judge shall state, in writing, the legal and/or factual reasons, whether within or outside the record, upon which his or her decision is based.

10.07.330 Right to Appeal:

- (a) All persons who are found guilty by a judge or jury shall have the right to appeal the verdict, the sentence or both within 14 days after sentencing.
- (b) Upon sentencing a defendant the judge shall tell the defendant about the right to ask for a new trial, the right to appeal, and the time limits for exercising these rights.

10.08 WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

10.08.010 Who May Prosecute Writ: Every person imprisoned or otherwise restrained of his liberty within the jurisdiction of the Nooksack Tribe or by order of the Nooksack Tribal Court may petition for a writ of habeas corpus to inquire into the reasons for the imprisonment or restraint. If those reasons are found to be illegal the person shall be released from custody by order of the court.

10.08.020 Application for Writ: Application for the writ is made by petition, signed either by the party for whose relief it is intended, or by some person on his/her behalf. The writ must include:

- (c)      The issue or issues to be determined upon return of the writ may be stated, either in the writ or in an order attached to the writ or in a copy of the petition attached to the writ.

10.08.040      Content of the Writ:

- (a)      The writ must be served upon the person to whom it is directed and it must be served in the same manner as a summons.
- (b)      The writ shall be delivered by any tribal law enforcement officer or by anyone authorized by the judge or, if the person cannot be served within the territorial jurisdiction of the court, by mail, return receipt requested.
- (c)      The writ may be delivered personally by giving it to the accused person directly or by leaving it at the accused's residence or workplace with a person at least 14 years old who lives or works there.

10.08.050      What to Contain: The person upon whom the writ is served must make a return to the court and state in the return:

- (a)      Whether s/he has the party in his/her custody or under his/her power or restraint and the authority for so holding the person.
- (b)      If s/he had, but no longer has, the party in his/her custody or under his/her power or restraint, the return must state particularly to whom, at what time and place, for what cause, and by what authority custody was released.

- (c) S/he must sign the return, except when that person is a sworn public officer and makes the return in his/her official capacity, it may be verified under oath.

10.08.060 Hearing on Return: The detained person shall be brought before the court by the person to whom the writ is directed unless the person to whom the writ is directed is not available and delegates another person to take his/her place.

- (a) The hearing must be held on the day set and it may be summary in nature.
- (b) Evidence may be produced and compelled as in civil actions.

10.08.070 Judgment:

- (a) If the detained person is in official custody, s/he may not be released on a writ of habeas corpus for any technical defect in commitment, which does not affect his/her substantial right.
- (b) Following the hearing, the tribal judge or judicial officer shall make such judgment regarding the custody of the detained person as the facts and circumstances warrant and the order shall be effective immediately.

80.01 – SCOPE OF APPELLATE RULES

80.01.010 Scope of Title:

This title governs appeals from decisions of the Nooksack Tribal Court in both civil and criminal matters. "Nooksack Tribal Court" for the purposes of this title shall mean the trial court division and the youth court division of the Nooksack Tribal Court. Nothing contained in this Code shall be construed as a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Tribe or its officers or enterprises unless explicitly denominated as such.

80.02 ESTABLISHMENT OF THE COURT OF APPEALS

80.02.010 Establishment of Court:

The Nooksack Court of Appeals is hereby established and is operative as a division of the Nooksack Tribal Court.

80.02.020 Composition of the Court:

A panel of three judges shall be convened to serve as the Court of Appeals. The panel shall be selected, as needed, from a roster of eligible judges approved by the Nooksack Tribal Council.

80.02.030 Chief Judge:

The Chief Judge of the Nooksack Court of Appeals shall be appointed by the Nooksack Tribal Council.

80.02.040 Conflict of Interest:

The judge who originally heard or decided a case is not eligible to sit on the panel which is hearing the case on appeal.

80.03 COURT DECISIONS THAT MAY BE REVIEWED

80.03.010 Appeal from Final Orders:

An aggrieved party who claims, in good faith, that the Nooksack Tribal Court made a mistake in determining a question of fact, a question of law, or a mistake with regard to an issue within the Court's discretion that affected the outcome of the case may seek review in the Court of Appeals of any final order, commitment, or judgment of the Nooksack Tribal Court. The Nooksack Tribe may not appeal a final judgment of acquittal in criminal cases.

80.03.020 Interlocutory Appeals:

An aggrieved party may seek review of acts of the Nooksack Tribal Court which are not final by filing a notice with the Court of Appeal for permission to file an interlocutory appeal. Permission to file an interlocutory appeal shall be granted only if the Nooksack Tribal Court has committed an obvious error which a) would render further proceedings useless; or b) substantially limits the freedom of a party to act.

80.03.030     Scope of Review:

The Court of Appeals shall limit its review to a) the record of proceedings from the Nooksack Tribal Court; b) errors of law and procedure raised by the appellant in his or her written brief; and 3) oral argument presented at a hearing before the Court of Appeals.

80.03.040     No Original Jurisdiction:

The Court of Appeals is an appellate body only and does not have original jurisdiction to hear and decide non-appellate matters. Only orders, decisions, or other written opinions of the Nooksack Tribal Court may be appealed to the Court of Appeals.

80.04            STARTING AN APPEAL

80.04.010     Notice of Appeal:

A written notice of appeal must be filed with the Nooksack Tribal Court within fourteen (14) days after the Court enters the decision which the appellant wants reviewed. If the party first files a motion for a new trial, rehearing, or reconsideration and the motion is denied, the fourteen (14) -day time limit shall be counted from the day the motion is denied. All time limits under this title shall be computed according to section 10.02.050 of the Nooksack Tribal Code.

80.04.020     Filing Fee:

Proof of payment of appropriate filing fee must accompany any document presented for filing, including a notice of appeal. Tribal Council, or the Tribal Court, may establish such filing fees for certain documents as are necessary and proper. In the absence of a Tribal Council – established filing fee, or a Court Ordered filing fee schedule, the filing fee for a notice of appeal shall be $150.00. The filing fee may be waived by the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, in his or her discretion, upon written request of the party for good cause shown.

The Court Clerk shall reject and shall not file any document presented for filing which is not accompanied by proof of payment of the applicable filing fee.

80.04.030     Content of Notice of Appeal:

A notice of appeal or notice for permission to appeal shall be entitled as such and shall:

- (a) Name the parties and their spokespersons, if any;
- (b) State the case number, date and nature of the decision appealed from;
- (c) Specify those parts of the decision which the party wants reviewed; and
- (d) List each error of fact, law or procedure which the appellant claims was committed by the Nooksack Tribal Court and its effect on the outcome of the case.

80.04.040     Notice of Appeal – Service:

The appellant shall serve notice of appeal on all parties within the fourteen (14) day time limit for filing the notice of appeal with the Court. The appellant shall be responsible for returning an affidavit of service to the Court when filing Notice of Appeal per § 80.04.010.

80.05 ACCEPTANCE OF REVIEW

80.05.010 Acceptance of Review of Appeals from Final Orders:

The Court Clerk shall provide the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals with a copy of the Notice of Appeal and affidavits of service filed by the appellant. The Chief Judge shall review the documents and shall accept the appeal on behalf of the Court of Appeals provided:

- (a) The notice of appeal was filed and served within the required time limit of §§ 80.04.010 and 80.04.040;
- (b) The notice of appeal substantially complies with the requirements of § 80.04.030; and
- (c) The appeal appears, on its face, to comply with section § 80.03.010.

The Chief Judge shall notify the parties within forty-five (45) days whether the appeal is accepted or is dismissed for failure to meet the requirements of this section.

80.05.020 Three Judge Review of Decision to Dismiss Appeal from Final Order:

A party may make a written request to the Court of Appeals that the full three judge panel reconsider the Chief Judge's decision to dismiss an appeal under § 80.05.010. The request must be filed within five (5) days from the date the notice to dismiss the appeal is served on the party. The decision of the three judge panel shall notify the parties within fourteen (14) days whether the decision to dismiss has been upheld or reversed. The decision of the three judge panel shall be final.

80.05.030 Acceptance of Review for Interlocutory Appeal:

The Court Clerk shall provide the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals with a copy of the Notice to File Interlocutory Appeal filed under § 80.03.020. The Chief Judge may convene a hearing on the motion and shall give written notice of its decision to the parties within 45 days. Denial of a motion for permission to appeal shall not affect a party's right to appeal under § 80.03.010.

80.06 STAY OF JUDGMENT

80.06.010 Automatic Stay; Exceptions:

Upon the filing of a notice of appeal, the enforcement of an order or judgment is stayed until the expiration of 14 days after entry of the order or judgment, EXCEPT the following are not stayed after entry, even if an appeal is filed, unless the Court orders otherwise:

- (a) An interlocutory or final judgment in an action seeking injunctive relief or a receivership;
- (b) A judgment or order that directs an accounting;
- (c) Orders in child custody cases; or
- (d) An order regarding jurisdiction, venue, or immunity.

80.06.020 Motion for Stay:

- (a) In its discretion and on such conditions for the security of the adverse party as are proper, the Court may stay the execution of or any proceedings to enforce an order or judgment pending the disposition of the appeal, upon such terms as are just. The party seeking a stay pending appeal should use the motion procedure provided under § 80.08.010.
- (b) The Court ordinarily will condition such relief from enforcement of the trial court decision on the furnishing of a supersedeas bond, cash or other security. However, the Court must not require a bond, obligation, or other security from the appellant when granting a stay on an appeal by the Nooksack Indian Tribe, its officers, or its agencies.
- (c) In evaluating whether to stay enforcement of such a decision, the Court shall:
  - (1) consider whether the moving party can demonstrate that debatable issues are presented on appeal; and
  - (2) compare the injury that would be suffered by the moving party if a stay were not imposed with the injury that would be suffered by the nonmoving party if a stay were imposed.
- (d) Any stay issued by the Court pursuant to this section shall be limited to a stay of the enforcement of an order or judgment.
  - (1) A stay issued pursuant to this section shall not stay the enforcement of a presumptively valid statute, regulation, or ordinance.
  - (2) A stay shall not be granted where it would afford the moving party substantially all the relief it might recover after an appeal on the merits.
- (e) In an appeal of an order regarding jurisdiction, venue, or immunity, no stay may be signed or issued by the Court against the Nooksack Indian Tribe or its officers, employees, or agents until a final order or judgment is issued by the Court.

80.06.030 Release in Criminal Cases:

Upon receipt of a Notice of Appeal and after the Chief Judge gives the parties an opportunity to be heard, the Chief Judge may set terms and conditions governing the release of a person convicted of a crime, the disposition of property which has been used as evidence or is the subject of the judgment, and other matters necessary to preserve the Court's jurisdiction while the appeal is being considered.

80.06.040 Bond:

The Chief Judge may require the party who appeals a judgment to deposit cash or other security with the Court while the appeal is being processed if there is a clear showing that some security is needed to guarantee that the Court's judgment will be enforceable later. The security required shall not be greater in value than the amount of judgment or fine imposed by the trial court, plus costs.

The Court must not require a bond, obligation, or other security from the appellant on an appeal by the Nooksack Indian Tribe, its officers, or its enterprises, or on an appeal directed by a department of the Tribal government.

80.07 RECORD ON APPEAL

80.07.010 Preparation of the Record:

The record on appeal shall be made up of the papers and exhibits filed in the trial court, a written transcript of the proceedings, and a copy of the tape recordings. Within ten (10) days of the date the Court receives notice from the Court of Appeals that review has been accepted, the Clerk shall prepare three copies of the record and send them to the Judges on the Court of Appeals. The Clerk shall make the record available to all parties for inspection and copying at the parties' expense.

80.07.020 Cost of Preparing the Record:

A party who requests a copy of the record shall bear the costs of preparing it unless waived by the Court, in its discretion for good cause shown.

80.08 THE REVIEW PROCESS

80.08.010 Motions:

80.08.070 Additional Evidence:

The Court of Appeals may make an exception to the rule that appellate review shall be restricted to the record and may allow the presentation of additional evidence a) if the evidence was not available at the time of the trial court proceedings; and b) refusal to consider the evidence would result in a clear injustice.

80.08.080 Waiver of Rules and Extension and Reduction of Time:

Costs of review shall be determined and awarded by the Court of Appeals. Appellant shall pay the costs of review if the appeal is dismissed or if the judgment is affirmed. Respondent shall pay the costs if the judgment is reversed. In any other case the costs shall be awarded only as ordered by the Court. In re Gabriel S. Galanda, pro se, Anthony S.

No. 16-2-01663-1

Petitioners,

[PROPOSED]
ORDER VACATING ORDER GRANTING PETITION FOR ENTRY OF FOREIGN JUDGMENT AND BARRING
EXECUTION AND/OR ENFORCEMENT

vs.

NOOKSACK TRIBAL COURT,

Respondent.

ORDER VACATING ORDER GRANTING PETITION FOR ENTRY OF FOREIGN JUDGMENT AND BARRING EXECUTION AND/OR ENFORCEMENT OF SAME

This matter came before the Court on the Tribe's motion for an order vacating the Court's granting Petition for Entry of Foreign Judgment. The Court heard the oral argument of counsel for both parties and considered the pleadings filed in this action.

Based on the argument of counsel, the pleadings and evidence presented, the Court finds:

1. The basis for the Petition for Entry of Foreign Judgment herein is the Nooksack Court of Appeals "Order and Judgment Awarding Costs" ("Foreign Order") issued in In re Galanda vs. Nooksack Tribal Court, 2016-CI-CL-001 & 002. See Pet. For Entry of Foreign Judgment.

2. The abovementioned Foreign Order has been vacated by the Nooksack Supreme Court. See Order Vacating Tribal Court of Appeals Orders as Void, In re: Orders Entered by Nooksack Tribal Court of Appeals After May 30, 2015, Nooksack Supreme Court Case No. 2016-CI-SC-002 (Oct. 17, 2016).

3. The judges issuing the Foreign Order lacked a current appointment at the time the Foreign Order was issued and therefore were without legal authority to issue said order.

4. Under Nooksack law, the Court of Appeals lacked jurisdiction over a party and/or the subject matter in In re Galanda vs. Nooksack Tribal Court, 2016-CI-CL-001 & 002.

4. R.C.W. 6.36.025 does not provide for a valid basis to domesticate the Foreign Order.

5. CR 82.5 is not a valid basis for enforcement of the Foreign Order.

6. The Petitioners lack any other legal authority to domesticate and/or enforce the Foreign Order.

Based on the above findings, It Is Ordered:

- 1. The Tribe's motion is granted.
- 2. The Court hereby vacates its granting of the Petition for Entry of Foreign Judgment of October 21, 2016.
- 3. Further action to execute or otherwise enforce said foreign judgment is hereby barred.
- 4. The Petition is denied and the case DISMISSED.
