

THE NAVAJO NATION

RUSSELL BEGAYE PRESIDENT
JONATHAN NEZ VICE PRESIDENT

INTERNSHIP OPENING

Legal Intern

The Office of Legal Counsel of the Navajo Nation Office of the President and Vice-President is seeking a summer Legal Intern. The Legal Intern will be responsible for the following duties:

- Conduct legal research and political analysis on Congressional bills and State bills impacting the Navajo Nation and Indian Country;
- Develop position statements and concepts papers on federal regulations and policy;
- Draft letters to federal and state agencies on health, economic development, environmental issues, social and other social issues that may impact the Navajo Nation and Indian Country;
- Assist in negotiations dealing with water rights, gaming, state and federal land acquisitions, fee-to-trust;
- Attend Navajo Nation Council and Committee sessions and review legislations impacting the Navajo Nation code, regulations and policy; and
- Other legal issues that may arise.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

College student majoring in pre-law or political science

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:

Preference is a current or incoming Law Student to an accredited Law School with experience in politics or background in political science.

Navajo Preference applies.

If interested, please contact Karis Begaye, Legal Counsel, Office of the President and Vice-President at 928-551-2383 or knbegaye@navajo-nsn.gov.