

STATE BAR OF WISCONSIN

INDIAN LAW SECTION

LEGAL EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP

The Indian Law Section (ILS) of the State Bar of Wisconsin was created in part to bring together those who have a special interest in Indian Law. In order to foster this special interest, the ILS intends to award a scholarship to a deserving third-year law student who intends to practice Indian Law in the state of Wisconsin. The award for the 2018-2019 school year will be $1,000. Future year award amounts are subject to change based upon student interest and ILS resources.

Applications must be postmarked no later than May 25, 2018. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered. The recipient will be notified before the school year, and be formally recognized at the Annual Indian Law Section CLE.
