To Invited Guests,

Bois Forte Band of Chippewa - Victim Services program is extending an invitation to attend the upcoming Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) training "Creating A Sacred Path For Families & Future Generations" that will be held on August 29, and 30, 2018 at Fortune Bay Resort Casino, Tower, MN.

The purpose of the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Training will be to bring together tribal and state judicial systems to enhance coordination regarding jurisdictional issues under VAWA. The two day agenda includes presentations from experienced presenters who have helped implement VAWA within tribes across the country. This is an excellent opportunity to learn about Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) and the criminal jurisdiction over non-Indian offenders who commit domestic violence crimes and violations of Protection Orders in Indian country.

The following are the agenda topic items.

Day One: *Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Overview

(8am - 4pm) *Case study on VAWA in Indian Country

*Tribal efforts to address Domestic Violence (P.L. 280, Tribal Law Order Act-TLOA, VAWA)

*Addressing the Opioid Abuse Crisis

*VAWA/Victim Rights and Indian Child Welfare

Day Two: *Breakout sessions: VAWA implementation training. *Group sessions for Implementing

(8am - 4pm) VAWA to include; judges, prosecutors, public defenders, court staff, law enforcement, and human services.

*VAWA Implementation Speaker - Session groups combine for presentation, discussion, and questions.

Who should attend: Judges, prosecutors, attorneys, tribal court staff, law enforcement, social workers, Tribal Indian child Welfare, Victim Service advocates, county officials, tribal government employees, those interested in learning about Violence Against Women Act (VAWA).
