

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT – Transactional Associate Attorney

Sonosky, Chambers, Sachse, Endreson, & Perry LLP is seeking an associate attorney with 1-5 years of experience in transactional and other Indian law experience for our San Diego, CA office. Interested applicants should have strong credentials and a commitment to representing Native American interests, and a clerkship is also highly preferred.

Sonosky, Chambers is a national law firm dedicated to representing Native American interests in a wide range of endeavors – including trial and appellate litigation, federal Indian law, tribal law, Indian self-determination and self-governance matters, transportation and infrastructure, natural resources, and economic development, among others. More detail about the firm is available at www.sonosky.com.

To apply, candidates should send an application that includes a cover letter, resume, law school transcript, and a writing sample to Colin Hampson at champson@sonoskysd.com. Or visit our website at <http://www.sonosky.com/careers.html> to apply. This position is open until filled, but applicants should apply by January 15, 2020. Applicants must be licensed to practice law in California, or willing to become licensed.
