

Sonosky, Chambers is currently recruiting 2L students for 2023 summer associate positions in our Washington, D.C., Alaska, and San Diego offices. We are a national law firm dedicated to providing the highest quality legal representation to Native American interests. We handle a wide range of endeavors, including trial and appellate litigation, federal Indian law, tribal law, Indian self-determination and self-governance matters, transportation and infrastructure, natural resources, and economic development, among others. We represent tribal interests in federal, tribal and state courts, and before Congress, state legislatures, and federal and state agencies. Please see www.sonosky.com for further information about the firm and our attorneys.

Applications from Alaska Native/American Indian students and are encouraged. Please send the following to Mary J. Pavel, Partner, at mpavel@sonosky.com (please also copy kwrap@sonosky.com):

Cover letter

Resume

Transcript

Writing sample (a writing sample relevant to our practice area is preferred, but not necessary)

Interested applicants should send information no later than June 30, 2022. Thank you for your interest.