

Rothstein Donatelli LLP
Summer Associate Announcement

The Tempe, Arizona office of Rothstein Donatelli LLP is seeking a summer associate for its Indian law practice. Rothstein Donatelli has offices in Santa Fe and Albuquerque, New Mexico, as well as in Tempe, Arizona where we specialize in federal Indian law, including gaming, economic development, Indian Child Welfare Act, Indian health law, civil litigation and transactional matters. Rothstein Donatelli is committed to advancing the sovereign rights of Native American tribes. More information about the Firm is available at www.rothsteinlaw.com.

The summer associate will be given a variety of real work assignments and will learn what a career in a boutique Indian law firm entails. The summer associate will have the opportunity to observe court and council hearings when appropriate, interact with tribal clients, and receive prompt feedback from each attorney in the Tempe office. The summer associate will also be assigned an attorney mentor that can assist the summer associate with navigating firm culture and law school objectives. A summer associate applicant should be team oriented, easy-going yet ambitious, and eager to serve tribes.

The position is in-person with remote work flexibility as needed and approved upon hire. The Firm offers competitive compensation, weekly lunches with attorneys and staff, and an easy-going diverse work environment.

Qualifications:

- Completed 1L or 2L year by Summer 2023
- Excellent research abilities
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- Familiarity with tribal communities and cultures (preferred)

Interested candidates should send a cover letter, resume, two or more references, law school transcript and writing sample (a sample relevant to our practice area is preferred, but not necessary) to Manya Snyder at info@rothsteinlaw.com and copy to Glennas'ba Augborne Arents at gaugborne@rothsteinlaw.com. The application deadline is February 10, 2023.
